The Northern Ontario Railroad Museum and Heritage Centre at 26 Bloor Street, in Capreol, is a family friendly museum attraction dedicated to the railroading, lumbering and mining history of Greater Sudbury. We are open 7 days a week from 10am to 4pm. During the Blueberry Festival join us for delicious blueberry treats served with coffee or tea in our tea room. On Saturday, July 20 and Sunday, July 21, 2019, bring the family out to the museum and enjoy a sweet blueberry sundae in the tea room as well. Visit www.normhc.ca or call 705-858-5050.

Blueberry Beer: Pounds (or Kilograms) of blueberries went into this summertime treat available at SpaceCraft Brewery at 854 Notre Dame Avenue (former Greyhound Terminal) open daily except Monday and Tuesday. The blueberry brew is called Galatic Notion check out "Spacecraft brewery" on facebook
